ATTENTION PARENTS

Behavior Strategies and De-Escalation Techniques

Trainers: Katy ISD Special Education Department Behavior Support Team

Come learn about behavior management strategies and de-escalation techniques for challenging behaviors.

Join us in exploring the “why’s” of behavior and how we can promote more positive behavior at home and in the community. We will examine how you can set up children for success through preventative strategies and discover how our reactions can make a big impact. We will also discuss how to reduce the incidents of aggression and violence through utilizing de-escalation strategies.
